

Over 20,000 killed, $2.8 billion stolen as crime increases 18%

WASHINGTON (AP) — Criminals killed more than 20,000 people and stole property worth $2.6 billion as crime in the United States increased 18 per cent last year, the FBI said today in its final 1974 report on crime.

Thieves made off with loot valued at more than the Justice Department's annual budget and more than twice what it takes to run the city of Chicago for a year.

Teen-agers were arrested for nearly one-third of the 10 million crimes reported to police, although persons from 10 to 17 account for only 16 per cent of the nation's population.

About half of all those arrested for burglaries, motor vehicle thefts and larcenies were teen-agers, the report said.

Firearms were used in 68 per cent of all murders, 44 per cent of the robberies, and 25 per cent of the serious assaults, the report said.

The grim statistics emerged from the FBI's annual report and analysis of the number of offenses and arrests reported to virtually all state and local law enforcement agencies. The FBI and other experts say many more crimes are never reported to police.

The FBI earlier had estimated there were 17 per cent more crimes committed in 1974 than a year earlier. The final report showed the increase actually was 18 per cent.

The crime rate is the number of offenses per 100,000 citizens.

"These final figures merely underscore what we already know. The problem of serious crime is immense," said Atty. Gen. Edward H. Levi. "A coordinated national response by all segments of the criminal justice system and at all levels of society is vital if we are to bring this problem under control."

There were 4,821 crimes per 100,000 citizens in 1974, the report said.

Increases were recorded for all sections of the country and for all seven crime categories measured — murder, rape, robbery, assault, burglary, larceny and vehicle theft.

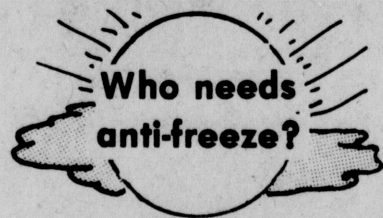

The violent crimes of murder, rape and assault account for hardly more than a half-million of all reported offenses.

The far more numerous cases of robbery, burglary, larceny and vehicle theft cost the nation an estimated $2.6 billion. The report said police recovered loot valued at $821 million, about 31 per cent of the total.

The statistics showed a marked increase in the number of teen-agers arrested for murder as well as for robbing and stealing. Ten per cent of the 16,000 persons charged with homicide were under 18.

During the past five years, the report said, "there was a 51 per cent increase in the number of persons under 18 years of age arrested for murder." By contrast, the number of adults arrested for murder increased only 29 per cent during the same period.

"In the suburban areas," the report said, "the involvement of the young age groups in police arrests is markedly higher than the national figures."

Mansfield hopes for woman

Screening of high court nominees ends

WASHINGTON (AP) — A lawyers' committee screening potential Supreme Court nominees completed the first stage of its work today, but there was no sign when recommendations might go to President Ford.

Meanwhile, the majority leader of the Senate said he hopes the President will nominate a woman.

The American Bar Association committee met until after midnight making its initial review of 12 names suggested as replacements for Justice William O. Douglas, who retired last week because of ill health.

Committee Chairman Warren Christopher of Los Angeles, in a tentative report to Atty. Gen. Edward H. Levi for today, said panel members would return to their home cities for continued investigations into the backgrounds and legal reputations of the potential nominees.

Later, when he makes the selection, the President is likely to take political and other factors into account.

An ABA spokesman said no recommendations have been made to Levi or Ford.

"The process will go on," he said. "They (the committee) may or may not meet again."

Senate Majority Leader Mike

Mansfield told reporters the appointment of a qualified woman is "long, long overdue."

Women comprise 52 to 53 per cent of the electorate, Mansfield said. "I see no reason why there should be any discrimination against women in appointment to the court or anything else."

Mansfield said he is certain there are plenty of women qualified to serve on the Supreme Court.

After the committee's evaluations are finished, Ford will submit his choice to the Senate for confirmation.

The choice is not limited to the list before the ABA committee, administration officials say.

Here are sketches of some potential nominees, some reportedly on the list submitted to the ABA by the administration.

ARLIN ADAMS
A judge of the 3rd U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals in Philadelphia, Adams, at 54, is within the "middle-aged" range Ford has mentioned and nine years younger than the average age of the current justices. He has been a judge six years. He is Jewish, and there has not been a Jew on the court since Abe Fortas resigned in 1969.

ROBERT H. BORK
Solicitor general, he is the government's lawyer in the Supreme Court. Both Justice Thurgood Marshall and retired Justice Stanley Reed came to the court from that position. Bork is 48 and a conservative. He fired the first Watergate prosecutor, Archibald Cox, which could be a liability.

ALFRED N. GOODWIN
A judge of the 9th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals, Goodwin is 52, a Republican from Portland, Ore., and has been a state or federal judge since 1955.

ROBERT P. GRIFFIN
The assistant Republican leader in the Senate, Griffin would give the court its first justice with a senatorial background since Justice Hugo L. Black retired in 1971. None of the present justices has held partisan elective office.

Ford has indicated he does not think people from such backgrounds should be ruled out. Nomination of Griffin could open the President to charges of cronyism and provincialism, since Griffin is an old friend from his home state. He is 52 and from Traverse City, Mich.

CARLA HILLS
Secretary of housing and urban development, Mrs. Hills would be the first woman justice at a time when feminist groups and First Lady Betty Ford are pushing for such an appointment.

She is from California, which would preserve the geographical balance that has existed, since Douglas was from Washington state. Some liberal senators questioned her qualifications to be HUD secretary, have not been happy with her performance, and could oppose her nomination on grounds she lacks experience.

SHIRLEY HUFSTEDLER
A judge of the 9th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals, Mrs. Hufstедler, 50, has been a state or federal court judge since 1961. She is a Democrat and might be more liberal than Ford would like, although he has said he doesn't think the ideological stance of a justice can be predicted in advance.

EDWARD M. LEVI
The attorney general, at 64, is one of the older people to be mentioned for the vacancy. He is Jewish. His appointment, like that of Griffin, would mean that four of the nine justices would be from the Midwest. He was born in Chicago and is a former University of Chicago president.

VINCENT L. MCKUSICK
A Portland, Maine, attorney, McKusick, 54, is a Republican and was a clerk to the late Justice Felix Frankfurter. His appointment would reinstate a tradition, not followed in recent years, of having a New Englander on the court.

DALLIN OAKS
President of Brigham Young University, Oaks, like Douglas, is a former law school professor. At 43, he would be the youngest nominee since Douglas was named at age 40. A Mormon, he would probably be the first of that faith on the court. He would be the second current justice from the Mountain states, joining Byron R. White of Colorado.

PAUL RONEY
A judge of the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals in New Orleans, Roney is highly regarded among his fellow judges. He is from St. Petersburg, Fla., and would be the second justice from the South, joining Lewis F. Powell Jr. of Virginia.

JOHN PAUL STEVENS
A judge of the 7th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals since 1970, Stevens is a former Supreme Court law clerk and served in 1951 as associate counsel of a House judiciary subcommittee. He is 55 years old and from Chicago.

J. CLIFFORD WALLACE
A judge of the 9th Circuit, Wallace is from San Diego, Calif., and his appointment would preserve the West Coast representation on the court.

WILLIAM H. WEBSTER
A judge of the 7th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals, Webster, 51, has been a federal judge since 1971. He is from St. Louis, is a former federal prosecutor and a past president of the Association of Missouri Republicans.

CHARLES E. WIGGINS
Fourth-ranking Republican on the House Judiciary Committee, Wiggins is a former House colleague of Ford who says he is "primarily a lawyer rather than a legislator or politician." Wiggins, 47, was a staunch supporter of President Richard M. Nixon during House impeachment proceedings. This could count against him.

FOUND AFTER 50 YEARS— Chicago Circuit Court Clerk Morgan M. Finley holds court transcripts from the Leopold and Loeb murder trial that had been missing for 50 years. The transcripts were found after a file cabinet was moved in a court office in Chicago. These documents are the only known transcripts from the trial. (AP Wirephoto)

Sees widely fluctuating food prices

WASHINGTON (AP) — Although food prices have slowed from their rapid climb of the past two years, consumers can expect them to gyrate widely for many years because of weather and Soviet Union grain imports, an Agriculture Department economist said today.

"The events of the last few years emphasize what we have tended to forget, that a major source of price instability is natural disaster — droughts, floods, too much rain, early frosts, insects and diseases," said Kenneth R. Farrell, deputy administrator of USDA's economic research service.

Retail food prices, which rose 4.5 per cent in 1972, soared 14.5 per cent in each of the following two years.

Department experts, including Farrell today, said those will average about 9 per cent for all of 1975 and slow down further to an annual rate of 4 to 5 per cent in the first half of next year.

"Food-price instability will be 'one of the major characteristics of the next decade' and much of the roller-coaster effect will be 'tied to weather, both here and abroad,'" Farrell said in remarks prepared for USDA's annual National Agricultural Outlook Conference.

"The emergence of the USSR as a participant in the world market means that the instabilities of grain production in that part of the world have become a part of our uncertainties," Farrell said.

Stricken by drought, Russia's grain harvest this year fell far short of needs. Consequently, the Soviets have bought heavily from other countries, including about 13.2 million metric tons of wheat and feed grains from the United States so far this season. A metric ton is 2,204.6 pounds.

A huge export flow the past three years, including massive sales to other countries as well as to Russia, have drained once-large U.S. grain reserves. During the previous two decades, the U.S. stockpile and similar supplies in Canada and Australia served as a buffer against soaring food prices, Farrell said.

But, once food products leave the farm, the elements of price instability "are less and largely man-made," he said.

High court refuses to review law

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court today refused to review the constitutionality of an Illinois law requiring new political parties to show support in more than one county to get on the state ballot.

The justices let stand a decision of the U.S. Court of Appeals in Chicago that the law discriminates against voters of Cook County and in favor of those in less populous counties.

The ruling came in a suit filed by the Communist Party of Illinois, which challenged the requirement that new parties file petitions containing 25,000 signatures of voters, of which not more than 13,000 can be from one county.

The party sought a place on the ballot on the basis of signatures from Cook County alone. Cook County contains 50 per cent of the state's population.

CARL GETS HIS WISH— Donald Duck escorts Carl Heart, 10, of Salina, Kan., around Disneyland in Anaheim, Calif., as the boy and his family visit the amusement park. Carl learned that he would die of leukemia and his first wish was to visit Disneyland. The people of Salinas paid for the trip for Carl and his family. (AP Wirephoto)

Teen-agers show less ability to write

DENVER (AP) — A study released today indicates American teen-agers are losing their ability to communicate clearly through written English.

Compared with students tested in 1970, students 13 and 17 years old tested last year wrote a greater number of incoherent paragraphs and wrote in a shorter, "primer-like" style, said a report from the National Assessment of Educational Progress (NAEP).

But 9-year-olds tested in similar fashion wrote better in 1974 than their counterparts four years earlier, the NAEP said.

Females wrote better essays than males at all three ages, the study found.

The NAEP is a project of the Education Commission of the States, an organization to which 45 states belong. Based in Denver, it conducts periodic tests in various subject fields to measure the relative skills of students from year to year. It is funded by the National Center for Education Statistics, a federal agency.

In a survey of writing skills taken first in 1970 and repeated in 1974, the NAEP tested 80,000 students in three age groups — 9-year-olds, 13-year-olds and 17-year-olds who were still in school. The test involved writing essays to answer questions.

Moore fit for trial

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A federal judge today found Sara Jane Moore mentally competent to stand trial and to assist in her defense on charges of attempting to assassinate President Ford.

U.S. District Court Judge Samuel Conti said Miss Moore would stand trial on Dec. 15, the date he had set before a federal appellate court ruling that appeared to pave the way for a delay.

The judge made his decision after hearing testimony by Dr. Robert Jack Eardley, chief of psychiatry at the Springfield, Mo., federal medical facility, and Dr. William Walter Menninger, chief of clinical psychiatry at the Topeka, Kan., state hospital.

Reds threaten takeover of Japan

By HENRY J. TAYLOR
Secretary of State Henry Kissinger privately received a Red warning behind closed doors from Japanese Premier Takeo Miki during his Tokyo stopover on the way back from Peking.

Japan, the last democracy in Asia, is our most consequential ally in the Far East. But the Dec. 10, 1972, Parliamentary lower house elections made the Communist party Japan's second largest opposition party. As in Italy, it does not need a majority in the Parliament. It has achieved a blocking position there.

It skillfully pursue its parliamentary tactics to harass and nullify Miki's shaky coalition government.

Miki confided to Dr. Kissinger that Moscow grew alarmed after former Premier Kakuei Tanaka's trip to Peking and Tanaka's attempts toward better Japan-Red China relations.

"This was a milestone in our Soviet relations," he said. Dr. Kissinger, fresh from receiving Peking's resentments over relations between the U.S.A. and the U.S.S.R., fully recognized the Soviet angle.

In fact, Miki emphasized that the Kremlin worries are concentrated on any rapprochement between his country and Red China. He stated that the Kremlin instructed the Soviet Ambassador to Tokyo to tell him that a Sino-Japanese rapprochement would seriously damage Russian-Japanese relations by disrupting Russia's Far East plans.

Reminding Dr. Kissinger of what Dr. Kissinger already knew, Miki pointed out that the U.S.S.R. operated in Japan, as elsewhere, at two levels.

The Soviet Embassy conducts itself correctly in every respect in Japan, as elsewhere, while behind the scenes the Japanese Communist party proceeds with systematized subversion dedicated to bringing down Miki's government as it brought down the government of Premier Tanaka.

The chairman of the Red party is wily, iron-fisted Sanzo Nosaka, a straight Soviet stooge. Nosaka was conspicuously honored by No. 1 Soviet leader Leonid I. Brezhnev at the International Communist Party Congress in Moscow on March 30, 1971.

The chief of Japan's Public Security Investigation Agency, similar to our FBI, is Kyosuke Hirotsu. Miki said that Hirotsu had told him that the Reds have more heavily than ever infiltrated the Japanese trade unions, faculties at universities of Tokyo, Osaka, Kobe, etc., and other intellectual groups, student bodies, the key public utilities and basic industries and all branches of the communications media—the Japanese newspapers, magazines, radio and television.

The Communist party and its fellow-travellers now plan an expanded internal destruction program. They also plan to step up their anti-American movement, said Miki.

The Communists portray themselves as against violence and for law and order, thus apparently winning votes from a Japanese middle class totally fed up with student and other eruptions. But Moscow is nevertheless braintrusting the tremendous Zengakuren student organization and at least five other militant groups.

Miki told Mr. Kissinger that student arrests are running at a rate of 14,000 a year and that obviously the intent is "to collapse the Japanese educational system."

The affiliated Red army is called the Rengo Sekigun. It is one of Nosaka's tools and assassinated 27 people in Tel Aviv's airport, highjacked a passenger airliner from Tokyo to North Korea, tortured and killed any number of the Rengo Sekigun's own dissidents in Japan and terrorized Western Europe to regain its own arrested members.

Miki said that the Japanese easily understood that their ancient civilization was a decorated paper screen, too flimsy to defend them. But in July 1853, U.S. Commodore Matthew Perry's flotilla of black ships opened the misty islands of Japan's Mikado to the colonial realities of the Victorian age.

However, Miki pointed out that Europeans and Americans did not teach Japan. Japan, of herself, chose to learn from Europe and America military, mechanical, industrial and financial methods. She imported mechanical sciences as the Turks years before had imported European artillery. This, he said, could hardly be called "influencing" Japan.

Prior to even the lifetime of Emperor Hirohito, born as late as 1901, where is the European or American philosopher, speechmaker, poet or churchman who remade anything consequential in Japan?

In stating this question to Dr. Kissinger, Miki was surprisingly outspoken. And as for today's Red influence, Dr. Kissinger had no answer.

"All you have to do is pull

the trigger and

POW!"

The annual membership roll call of the Red Cross in Dixon will be launched this week for the renewal of old members and the receiving of new ones. The membership roll call is set for Nov. 21 to 26, closing on Thanksgiving Day. It is planned to have the Boy Scout organization of the city actively in charge of the membership drive this year.

Voice of the people

Comments on Silvest's remarks

I noted with interest Dr. Silvest and his 60 per cent hypochondria among prisoners.

His statement, "... if they have any money or smarts or pull, they wouldn't be there." Seems to tell it all.

I also wonder about the per cent of con artists in jails as compared to con artists in the medical profession.

Which has conned the most money? Check their bank accounts for the answer.

I used to donate my Time and Newsweek magazines to the prisoners to help relieve their boredom but jail officials stopped that. Said the prisoners wouldn't read them anyway.

They were probably too busy thinking of excuses to call the doctor.

It's probably the only time they could afford one.

John Fischer.

Guns are tools

Every effort is being made to change the way Americans look at firearms by the controlled media. Instead of seeing guns as tools that could be essential in the preservation of life, liberty and property and as implements with genuine recreational uses, the controlled media are driving ever deeper into the American psyche an image of guns as inherently pernicious instruments.

Just like the superstitious pagans of ancient history, anti-gun advocates have personified firearms and imbued these inanimate objects with a malevolent will of their own. We are being asked to believe that the "mens rea" underlying criminal acts committed with guns is in the "mind" of the gun and not in the mind of the perpetrator of the criminal act. Which is why the liberal press is so full of stories and statistics about the number of people killed by guns. The only value of such an incredible fiction is that it serves to justify an attack on the right to possess weapons instead of proper action against those persons who are responsible for crime.

U.S. should withdraw from U.N.

I cannot understand why President Ford and Congress do not withdraw the United States from the United Nations. Why should the United States get out of the UN? You will find the answers to that question listed below.

1. The United Nations was founded by communists to serve communist purposes.
2. The most important officials of the UN have been Marxist, who were working entirely for the communist aims.
3. Today the UN is completely and directly controlled by communist influences and personnel.
4. The communists are our deadly enemies who boast of their intention to subject American people to the same tyranny now suffered by people of Soviet Russia and mainland China.
5. Communist tyranny offers security of an impoverished sort at the cost of all freedom. The secret police become more brutal than the wardens of any normal prison would ever be.
6. Life within these communist countries is unbearable. Every year thousands get themselves killed either by trying to revolt or escape.

7. Records state clearly that the UN has helped to foment more wars during the thirty years of its existence than any other organization during an equal period of time in all human history.

8. In many wars, such as Korea, Viet Nam and Katanga, the UN along with NATO has actively participated on the side of the communist.

9. During the war in Katanga, countless numbers of innocent people were butchered and slaughtered by United Nations troops.

Groups such as the John Birch Society and the Ku Klux Klan are trying to get the American people to realize the dangers of the United States being involved with the United Nations. They are passing out literature and petitions on the UN subject. Even though, throughout the many years of petitioning, with millions of signatures, Congress and the President of the United States have not done one thing to try to withdraw the U.S. from the UN.

Sincerely,
Steve Hey

Honor students get nasty remarks on cards

By T. LEE HUGHES
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON, Ill. (AP) — If you ever get angry at a computer again, think of the kids at Washington High School. Students with A's and B's also got some very nasty teacher comments about their schoolwork, but the words were direct from the mouth of an errant computer.

School officials found out about it late last week when about 1,700 report cards were handed out at the high school. Teacher comments as well as grades are entered on the cards by computer.

"When we passed out the cards, one of the students had an A on the card and the comment said something like, 'needs extra help,'" said Ray Torry, district superintendent.

"He went to his teacher and said, 'Hey, I got an A, how much more do I have to do?'"

Investigation showed the educational data firm that processed the cards had fouled up, Torry said. And students with A's and B's were getting comments such as, "this student is inconsistent in classwork," "did not complete the required work," or "he lacks concern for neatness."

Torry said in one instance a student who was absent only one day got the comment: "is absent too often."

"It created some bad feelings for us, but we're not ready to throw out computers," said Torry, whose school is in its second year of computerized report cards.

As is the case most times, the computer made the error because a human made an error. Teachers make their comments by selecting a code on a computer card. The educational data firm then matches the code up with a list of about 100 teacher comments drawn up by the school, Torry said.

The appropriate comment should then appear on the final report card prepared by the computer. But Torry said someone in the firm matched the codes up with a sample

DEPRESSION ART "FOUND"

Public Offered 1937 U.S. Gov't Art Prints

WASHINGTON, D.C. (Special) — A series of rare coincidences has led to the historic discovery of several thousand sets of full color antique art prints that were "lost since 1937." They are now being offered to the American public.

ELEANOR ROOSEVELT
Back in 1937, immediately following the depression years, Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt and a select group of a dozen nationally prominent people formed a voluntary national committee for art appreciation to create an art program that would give the public a well-needed moral lift. It was the committee's decision to select the world's most famous paintings from the 16th, 17th, 18th, 19th, and 20th centuries - the best paintings of Matisse, Van Gogh, Gainsborough, Picasso, Gauguin, Titian, etc., and to reproduce them in full color as perfectly as humanly possible and make them available to the public at a price within the reach of nearly everyone.

ABANDONED IN 1937
For some unknown reason, after a quantity of these beautiful reproductions were made, the entire project was abandoned and this collection of perfect reproductions was stored in a Brooklyn warehouse, where they remained undisturbed since 1937.

The lost collection was "rediscovered" and leading lithographers and art critics agree that the subject matter and quality of detail and color reproduction is incredibly accurate. Over $100,000.00 had been spent to make finely engraved glass printing plates.

These authentic original 1937 prints are literally collectors' items and have been appraised by a member of the Antique Appraisal Assoc. of America, Inc. at $7.00 each print. Once they have been sold, there will be no more available. A truly excellent art "investment" that makes a fabulous gift.

AVAILABLE TO PUBLIC

Now, after 38 years these full color 11"x14" (ave. size) prints are finally available to the public at $19.95 for a collection of 15 prints. comment list prepared by the firm, not with the comment list drawn up by the school.

The mixup resulted primarily in students with good grades getting negative comments, not the reverse, said Torry. But he said he did not know how many students were affected. The firm offered to redo the cards but the school declined, he said.

"I think my confidence (in computers) has been a bit shaken," he said. "But (the experience) hasn't soured me totally yet."

Washington High School will pay about $3,100 for the computerized report card service this year, which also provides officials with cumulative grade point averages and class standings, Torry said. He says the new system has resulted in an increase in teacher comments, and he doesn't think it detracts from the teacher-student relationship.

"I don't think this detracts from the personalized aspect of that report card," he said.

Sen. Scott received Gulf funds

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Republican Leader Hugh Scott has been identified as the recipient of $10,000 a year in Gulf Oil Corp. cash expenses in the ever-widening probe of Gulf political donations.

And the disclosures identified for the first time as corporate cash recipients former President Lyndon B. Johnson; Sen. Mark O. Hatfield, R-Ore.; Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La.; and Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn.

The deposition released Friday also concerned Gulf's Good Government Fund, which depends on legal donations from Gulf employees.

Good Government donations included $2,000 in 1972 to the congressional re-election campaign of President Ford, which was reported then by Ford White House Press Secretary

Ron Nessen said Ford "never knowingly took a contribution from Gulf or any other corporation." Corporate contributions are illegal.

The deposition, given by a former Gulf attorney and filed in U.S. District Court, noted that in some cases the corporate-cash recipients might not have been aware the money came from Gulf.

Scott issued a statement saying, "No corporate funds were so received to my knowledge. These contributions were either committed to my own campaigns or distributed to further the campaigns of others."

Securities and Exchange Commission attorneys took the testimony from Thomas D. Wright in Pittsburgh in September. He was retained by Gulf in 1973 when the Watergate special prosecutor began inquiring about 1972 contributions. His testimony was based on notes and memorandums of statements made by Gulf's top lobbyist, Claude C. Wild Jr., in meetings held over several months with Gulf officials, the special prosecutor's office and the staff of the Senate Watergate committee.

Wild reported at one of the sessions that he had donated $10,000 in 1972 to the Republican Senate Campaign Committee and earmarked it for Hatfield at the request of the Kuwait Embassy, testified Wright, who also said he had no idea whether Hatfield knew of the arrangement.

Humphrey was listed as the recipient of $25,000 in 1968, the same year Nixon was listed as receiving $50,000.

Miss Bonnell and Louis Bontz wed

SUBLETTE— St. Patrick's Catholic Church, Amboy, was the setting for the double-ring ceremony that united Barbara Bonnell and Louis Bontz in marriage Oct. 18. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Anna Bonnell, Sublette, and the late Mr. Marvin Bonnell. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Bontz, Dixon.

The 11 a.m. ceremony was performed by the Rev. Robert Donovan. Twin arrangements of white glads and pink carnations graced the main altar, with pink bows marking the pews.

Mrs. Peter O'Rourke, Amboy, played the organ and accompanied the vocalist, Richard Montavon, Amboy.

Given in marriage by her brother, James, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white silk organza over taffeta featuring a high neckline, empire bodice, and sheer bishop sleeves. Her A-line skirt flowed into a wateau chapel-length train. The bodice, sleeves and hemline of the gown were trimmed with floral appliques of Venice lace.

Her Juliet headpiece was a pearl and Venice lace cap, with elbow-length nylon imported double illusion edged with matching Venice lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of white Elegance carnations, stephanotis, pink roses, and Mary Devores roses, with accents of pink and ruby star flowers and trailing ruby velvet ribbons.

Miss Cheryl Evans, Plainfield, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She was attired in a pink polyester knit gown with a short ruby velvet cape. The gown featured a high shirred neckline and fitted empire bodice over a full bias flared skirt. The ruby cape was edged with pink knit and fashioned in front with a ruby velvet button. Her colonial bouquet combined ruby and pink Elegance carnations, Mary Devores roses, white daisy pompons with accents of pink and ruby star flowers and long ruby velvet streamers. She wore a circle headpiece of pink feathered carnations and Mary Devores roses.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Wayne (Joanne) Heinzerth, Mendota, and Mrs. Ronald (Judy) Hoyle, Malta, sisters of the bride; Miss Denise Morrissey, Harmon; Mrs. James (Joyce) Dale, Amboy, and Miss Julie Burke, Dixon. They wore identical gowns and carried colonial bouquets like the maid of honor's. Their headpieces were half-crowns of feathered pink carnations on ruby velvet material and were made by the bride's mother.

James Heffernan, Harmon, served as best man. Ronald Bontz, Rock Falls, brother of the groom; Tim Oester, Harmon, cousin of the groom; Dennis Gehrt, Normal; Steve Dempsey, Amboy, and Rick Haefner, Harmon, attended as groomsmen. Ushers were Gary Bonnell, Bloomington, brother of the bride, and Greg Bontz, Dixon, brother of the groom.

The reception was held at the Green River Saddle Club in Amboy, where a buffet luncheon was served for approximately 450 guests. The three-tiered wedding cake was served by Mrs. Pat Bonnell, Bloomington, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Barb Ekstrum, Peoria, sister of the groom. Mrs. Debbie Regalado, Dixon, sister of the groom served the coffee. Punch flowed from a fountain topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. Guests were registered by Jennifer Hoyle, niece of the bride and Michelle Ekstrum, niece of the groom.

Miss Cheryl Schamberger and Sheree Kreiser were in charge of the gift table. Host and hostess at the reception were Mr. and Mrs. Junior Bonnell, uncle and aunt of the bride.

Guests danced to the music of "Hard Times," La Moille.

Did you ever go shopping and forget your shopping list? That is a frustrating experience because you come home with food items that were not on the shopping list and your money budgeting for food is gone.

To save time, money, and energy, make a list before you go shopping — place it where you won't forget to take it with you. The "pay-off" is worth the effort. You are better organized and more relaxed. And, you could finish your shopping with more cash in your pocket.

Another advantage of a shopping list is that it helps you remember what you wanted to buy. You avoid coming home without some needed item.

Shopping with a list in hand, you are less likely to buy something that "catches your fancy" but is not really needed.

To make an effective shopping list follow these suggestions:

—Jot down the items you need as you think of them.

—Organize items to be bought according to their location in the store and according to the location of the stores where you shop. This will help you from traveling back and forth, wasting time and energy.

—Decide how much you can spend for the items on your list.

Write out sizes, colors, etc. to buy if that information is needed. Take your list when you go shopping and stick with it. You'll finish faster, avoid impulse purchases, have the needed items and perhaps some extra cash!

Buy First Things First

Buy the foods essential for good nutrition before spending food dollars on unessential foods.

When money is tight, be sure to buy foods from the four basic food groups before spending dollars on those extras with little nutritional contribution.

Within each of the four basic food groups, good-quality foods are available at prices that will fit your purse. The most expensive food items are not necessarily the most nutritious ones. In the milk and milk products group, plan to buy the equivalent of three cups of milk per day per child and two cups per adult. Dry milk mixed with water is the least expensive, whole and flavored milk the most costly. You can also mix the liquid dry milk with whole milk if you desire. Remember it takes about 1½ cups of ice cream to have the same protein and calcium value as one cup of milk.

We should eat at least four different fruits and/or vegetables each day. Best buys in this group are usually canned fruits and vegetables, dried vegetables, or fresh produce at the peak of the season. However, check price per serving from season to season to determine the best buy.

Whole grain or enriched breads and cereals are among the budget foods. The recommended four servings per person per day can come from the low-cost breads, cooked cereals and unsweetened dry cereal.

Meat, fish and poultry are foods that provide high-quality protein, with the lower-cost meat cuts just as nutritious as the high-priced ones. Eggs, cheese, dried peas and beans, nuts and peanut butter are also good protein foods. You don't need over-generous servings of meat. The adult allowance for protein is 45 grams. One ounce of lean cooked meat, poultry, two eggs or ¾ cup dried peas or beans are about nine grams each. If you provide half the needed protein from animal foods, the remaining protein will be obtained from breads and cereals and other plant foods. Knowing the above will help you buy protein foods at lower cost.

Of course, in addition to the four food groups, you need to buy the essential ingredients for everyday cooking — fats, oils, salt. But even there you often make your money go for good nutrition. Iodized salt, for example, costs the same as uniodized, but it provides iodine or more nutrition. First check with your family doctor to see if you need more iodine in your diet.

Girl who thinks she's nobody is somebody

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a faithful reader and so are most of the kids I know at school.

I'm a sophomore this year and very unhappy about the way the students around here are divided into three groups. There are the Jocks, the Hoods and the Nobodys.

The Jocks are the popular good-looking athletic kids—both boys and girls. They win all the elections and everybody looks up to them.

The Hoods are the smokers, drinkers and make-outs. They have trouble with teachers but stick together and seem to have fun.

The Nobodys are the friendliest and most decent, but they don't rate with the other groups. I'm a Nobody and it bugs me. I just don't fit into the other two categories. Any suggestions?—Raytown Blue-Jay

Dear Jay: Sounds as if the last two categories are misnamed. The Hoods should be the Nobodys. And the Nobodys should be the Somebodies.

Being good-looking or athletic are accidents of fate. The Jocks may appear to have it all together but let me assure you they are just as insecure and unsure of themselves at times as you are. What's more, decency and friendliness are by far the greater virtues. In the long run you'll do better than most of the others. So rise and shine, Blue-Jay.

Dear Ann Landers: Since the death of his wife, Uncle Bo has taken "Mrs. Companion" (she's a widow) to all family gatherings, picnics, parties—everywhere. We like her and are pleased that Uncle Bo has found a compatible friend, but...

Problem: There are many functions where the number of guests must be sharply limited. This sometimes means leaving out a cherished friend or a favorite (but not so close) relative. Uncle Bo never consults anyone. He simply returns his acceptance with "and guest" written in.

We wish he'd make it "and wife" but we suspect he has no intention of taking that step. What can we do about it?—Turmoil In Newark

Dear T.: You can accept the fact that it's double or nothing. If push comes to shove, Uncle Bo will tell you they are "a couple" and if his companion is unwelcome he won't come either. So, unless you want to face the choice, simply assume that his Lady Fair is a permanent attachment and be as gracious as possible.

Dear Ann Landers: I've just met the most beautiful family and I'd like to share them with you.

I'm an R.N. in the cardiac care unit of a large hospital. Mr. K. came into my ward after suffering from a severe heart attack. I have never seen a closer family. They were by his side the 40 hours he lived. I would have given my own life if it meant Mr. K's widow and those 12 kids could have had their dad back.

When Mr. K. died the nurses wept in each other's arms. But we know this wonderful woman and her children will make it. They can't fail with so much love.

On the day Mr. K. passed away, the nurses on the floor received six red roses and a thank-you card from that wonderful family.

Please print this letter, Ann. Maybe they will recognize themselves and realize they are something special.—Touched

Dear Touched: Thank you for telling us about that beautiful family. They ARE something special, and could serve as a model for us all.

Attention! Prospective brides

Because of misunderstanding on wedding pictures, The Telegraph is asking prospective brides to arrange for good black-and-white wedding pictures for use with wedding stories.

Color photographs and black-and-white prints off a color negative are unsatisfactory for good newspaper reproduction.

Rather than be disappointed by having a picture rejected by the newspaper, we are advising brides to insist on a black-and-white picture shot with black-and-white film.

Jim: "There is an opening lead made on every hand. Sometimes it doesn't make any difference what you lead. On other occasions it means the difference between making and losing the contract."

Oswald: "Against a slam contract your first decision must be whether or not to attack; your second, where to attack if an attack appears to be called for."

Jim: "Now take a look at the West hand. You hold the king of trumps and two queens, yet your opponents have galloped into a slam. You expect your king of trumps will be a winner. South has bid two, three and six spades. Where is the other trick going to come from?"

Oswald: "The answer is that if it is going to come from diamonds your partner will have a diamond trick that will keep. If it is going to come from hearts or clubs, then you had better lead one of those suits right away."

Jim: "The suit to attack in is clearly your short one. You only have three hearts. There is a good chance that you will score a heart trick if your partner holds the king. You lead it and North-South complain of bad luck. Lead anything else and they score the slam." 17 (Newspaper Enterprise Assn.)

The Doctor Says:

Proper diet includes 60 grams of protein

By Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.
DEAR DR. LAMB — I am 55 years old and enjoy your column very much. I would like to know your thinking on protein. At times you indicate you favor a high protein diet and other times that excess protein goes into fat. You say that health can be injured if one doesn't have enough protein. What do you consider a minimum standard for an active male of 160 pounds?

My diet consists of juices, fruits, soups, vegetables, salad and a small amount of meat. No fried foods, no fats, no excess salt. I would like to keep my weight at the present level.

DEAR READER — There is a right and wrong amount of almost all good things in life, and protein is no exception. You will be getting enough protein if your diet includes 60 grams of good protein a day.

Now, not all protein is good protein, meaning that it contains adequate amounts of all the essential amino acids that the body cannot manufacture from other protein.

The other proviso is that your diet must contain enough calories to meet your energy needs, particularly if you have already eliminated all the excess body fat so many people carry around. If you are on a starvation diet your body will use your body protein for calories to provide essential energy.

About the only people who need more protein than this are those actually building muscle mass (not muscle fat) and that could increase the requirement up to about 100 grams a day.

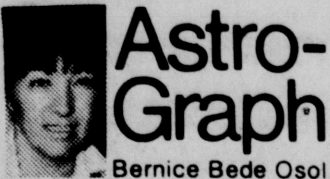

When you take more protein in than your body needs to build or replace lost body protein, the excess is broken down to calories for immediate energy or to form fat.

A lot of people do not understand that proteins are made up of a variety of amino acids that are the building blocks for body protein.

The figures I have given you for protein are based on the Recommended Daily Allowances established in 1974 by the National Academy of Sciences. This amount is more than the minimal daily allowance and includes enough to provide an excess for many healthy people. In the past many of the protein requirements have been overly generous. These amounts are fine for most healthy people. In case of illness or unusual situations, the amount might be different.

You can figure that a pound of raw, separable, lean meat, fish or poultry will contain about 100 grams of protein. That is the weight after all skin, bone and inedible parts have been removed.

Milk and milk products are an excellent source of good protein. You can use the nonfat products to avoid fat and still get protein. The problem with many so-called high protein diets is that they contain lots of fat, too.

Whittler dedicates hobby to mother, father, wife

OHIO — William Waca, a whittler from Tiskilwa, was the guest speaker at the November meeting of the Ohio Woman's Club held in the social hall of the Ohio Lutheran Church.

"Every time I give this program I dedicate it to three people," stated Waca. "My mother who was always there to bandage the cut fingers of an eight year old boy learning to whittle; my father who gave me the knives and kept them sharp for me, and my wife who lets me whittle at the kitchen table instead of sending me to the basement workshop."

Waca uses three kinds of wood in his whittling: Driftwood that calls for cleaning, scraping and polishing; log sculpture, pieces from trees or shrubs that suggest objects or ideas, and just common wood for whittling. Many of his pieces he has whittled from "sentimental wood," for example, a two-faced mask carved from a 4 inch by 4 inch block of wood from the Old Providence Church. Another piece was out of a stairway post found in Charlie Giesenhagen's old house. He had with him many examples of his work including a head of Popeye the Sailor man that he had made when he was a little boy. He has exhibited his work at the Mississippi Fair in Davenport, Iowa, for many years along with other whittlers.

During the business meeting, Mrs. Eugene Hansen, president, appointed the following to serve on the Community Project: Mrs. Clifford Anderson, Mrs. Lester Morgensen and Mrs. Lyle Forristall.

The tea table at which Mrs. Forristall presided featured a basket of fall flowers with a large yellow candle at the center. Hostesses for the evening were: Mrs. Forristall, Mrs. Cairo Krieger and Mrs. Morgensen.

"Accuracy isn't the only thing a meter reader cares about."

Mike Lupo is a meter reader for Commonwealth Edison. "Actually, reading the meter itself is pretty easy. I'm good. And, of course, it's my job to be accurate."

And considering that Commonwealth Edison meter readers read over 1.5 million meters a month with 99.9% accuracy, we'd say they're doing a pretty good job.

Mike: "But that's only part of my job. First, you have to get to the meter. You wouldn't believe some of the weird places they've got them. Up on balconies, buried behind a million boxes in a storeroom."

"And then there are dogs. I'm still trying to figure them out."

"But you know, the real job has to do with people. When you've been on a route for awhile, you get to know your customers. You get a nice understanding going. Once that happens, they realize they can depend on me."

"And that's what matters most."

Amboy gets plaque from Carson Pirie Scott

AMBOY—A commemorative plaque to mark the site of the first Carson Pirie Scott and Company store was presented to the City of Amboy at a ceremony held Sunday afternoon.

Mayor Kenneth McCracken introduced J. Gordon Gilkey, vice president of civic affairs and personnel, who made the presentation on behalf of the company. In his remarks, Gilkey disclosed how the firm has grown from this humble beginning with one store to the huge retail and wholesale business which does over $350 million in business annually. The operation includes 12 stores and the Leisure Time Food and Beverage service at O'Hare International Airport. It now employs over 14,000 persons who are called associates. The only descendant of the early family still with the company is John T. Pirie, who is retired, but serves as chairman of the executive committee.

Clint Conway, chairman of the Amboy Bicentennial Commission, accepted the plaque in behalf of the city.

Introduced during the program were Alderman Ronald Beister, who instigated the plan to have the plaque placed at the site, as well as other city officials, State Senator David Shapiro and Rep. Richard Mautino.

Following the program, Gilkey was honored at a dinner served at the Long Branch.

William Laemmel, owner of the Long Branch, said he plans to have a new store front installed and then the plaque will be bolted to the front door.

The insignia was designed by Clem Bradley, artist in charge of all display work for the company, and features a thistle design to denote the Scottish ancestry of the founders.

Damage suit is transferred here

A damage suit filed in Rock Island County involving alleged architectural discrepancies in the construction of a power plant at Dixon Developmental Center has been transferred to Lee County Circuit Court for jury trial.

Damages of $116,000 are sought by Waters Construction Co., an Iowa firm, against Fred Sanneman, an architect with the firm of Consoer, Townsend and Associates, consulting engineers.

The suit charges Sanneman with submitting plans for the power plant using an existing sewer line as a sanitary sewer when it was found to be a storm sewer "not capable of taking sanitary discharge," the suit alleges.

The apparent mistake was not found until four months after construction on the building had begun in 1970 and prevented completion of the project through the winter of 1971 and 1972, the suit charges.

The State Building Authority employed Sanneman's firm to prepare architectural drawings for the building.

In seeking recovery of the damages, Waters Construction claims it was required to pay employees wage increases, retroactive wage increases, employ extra job superintendents, provide materials and additional labor in the construction job.

Suspect nabbed in Indianapolis

OREGON—Police in Indianapolis, Ind., apprehended a Cicero youth on an Ogle County warrant for burglary. Transported to the Public Safety Building over the weekend was Carmen Ippolito III, 18.

Nachusa girl gets ticket

Julie L. Wells, 17, Nachusa, was ticketed by Dixon Police Friday night for driving too fast for conditions.

The charge stemmed from a collision that night on West Chamberlin Street. Wells had turned onto Chamberlin from Upham Place when her car sideswiped a parked car of Watson E. Smoot, 333 W. Chamberlin St.

Tumbles from speeding car

OREGON—A Rochelle man was involved in an argument with his wife, according to Ogle County Sheriff's deputies, fell or jumped out of a car while it was traveling 50 miles per hour Saturday morning.

Tom Ritchie, 27, was taken to Rochelle Community Hospital by Rochelle Ambulance following the accident on Ill. 38 east of Rochelle.

Ritchie told deputies he and his wife were arguing when he leaned against the passenger door and fell onto the roadway. Judy Ritchie told deputies her husband opened the door and jumped from the car.

No tickets were issued.

6th highest rate of violent crime

CHICAGO (AP) — The Illinois rate of violent crime is sixth highest in the nation, figures released today by the FBI show.

For every 100,000 inhabitants, there were 627.1 violent crimes in 1974, the annual Uniform Crime Reports compiled by the FBI showed. Only New York, Maryland, Nevada, Florida and Michigan were recorded as having higher rates.

The Illinois rate jumped from 555.9 in 1973, the report showed. It placed the national average for 1973 at 415.3 for every 100,000 inhabitants. The average for all 50 states plus Puerto Rico in 1974 was 458.8.

The murder rate in Illinois, 12th highest in the nation, excluding Puerto Rico, was 11.8 for each 100,000 inhabitants, up from 10.4 in 1973. The rape figure, 14th worst, was 27.7, up from 24, and the robbery rate, fourth greatest, was 313.4, increased from 272.8.

The Uniform Crime Reports do not rank the states comparatively but merely lists the statistics for each in tabular form. The rankings were made by comparing the tables for each state.

Chicago, a city of 3.2 million troubled by slums and gang warfare, was far ahead of all but one other Illinois community in its rate of violent crime. There were 793.9 such acts for every 100,000 inhabitants in the metropolitan area. Other metropolitan rates were Peoria 607.2, Champaign-Urbana 480, Quad Cities (including Iowa) 388.1, Decatur 378.5, Springfield 358.5, Rockford 324.8 and Bloomington-Normal 300.4.

East St. Louis, a slum-ridden community in which one school board member is under indictment for plotting to kill another and 27,340 of the some 60,000 inhabitants receive public aid, recorded 52 murders and other deliberate slayings.

The over-all rate of violent crime in East St. Louis was not available because the Uniform Crime Reports include it with the St. Louis metropolitan area.

Chicago had more murders and intentional killings with 970, followed by East St. Louis, the suburb of Chicago Heights with 11 and Peoria and Joliet, each with nine. Other large cities and major university communities: Rockford seven, Springfield six, Champaign-Urbana (total) six, Evanston five, Decatur four, Waukegan two and Carbondale one.

Chicago led in forcible rapes with 1,920, followed by East St. Louis 142, Peoria 63, Joliet 39 and Waukegan 31. Others:

Rockford 30, Evanston 17, Champaign-Urbana (total) 16, Decatur 11, Springfield eight, Carbondale six.

Chicago had 26,172 robberies, East St. Louis 1,660, Peoria 457, Waukegan 320 and Joliet 308. Others: Champaign-Urbana (total) 340, Rockford 283, Springfield 254, Evanston 240, Decatur 131 and Carbondale 30.

The state's largest city had 50,722 burglaries followed by East St. Louis 3,391, Peoria 3,296, Rockford 3,222 and Joliet 2,205. Others: Springfield 2,072, Waukegan 1,424, Decatur 1,213, Evanston 1,097 and Carbondale 297.

Capitol Anniversary

The United States Congress met in eight different cities before it convened in its permanent home in Washington, D.C. 175 years ago today. Only the north wing of the U.S. Capitol was completed, when 32 Senators and 105 Representatives met there November 17, 1800, for the second session of the 6th Congress. The first session had been held in Philadelphia. The Capitol's south wing was completed in 1811. But on August 24, 1814 — during the War of 1812 — British soldiers made a bonfire of books from the one-room Library of Congress and burned the Capitol, leaving only the walls standing. Congress began meeting again in the Capitol in 1819.

Villagers in Compton will go to the polls Thursday to help save the Compton Village Grade School, part of the Mendota School District, from closing. (Telegraph Photo)

Vote on referendum Thursday

Compton Grade School fate hangs in balance

COMPTON — The polls will be open from noon to 7 p.m. Thursday at the Compton Grade School when the Mendota School District will try to pass an educational fund referendum.

This proposition has been put to vote five times in the past 10 years and has been defeated each time.

The finance committee of the grade school board is running the referendum to increase the educational fund tax rate by 33 cents per $100 assessed valuation. If it is defeated again, the 1976-77 educational fund budget will be cut $275,000. This involves numerous cuts in the educational program, says the board.

One of the cuts is the closing of the Compton Grade School and Blackstone school in Mendota. This would mean that the grade school students in Compton will have to be bused to Mendota Northbrook School and Lincoln School and attend classes almost double the size to which they are accustomed.

There have been budget cuts already made for this year and even if the referendum passes, more cuts will have to be made. The crucial cuts in this referendum, other than the closing of the two schools, will be to dismiss 18 teachers: nine classroom teachers, one industrial arts, one home economics, one art, two music, one bilingual, one counselor, one physical education, and half-time speech. Cut back the band program from grades 5-8 to grade 6-8. Eliminate one principal position, eliminate one secretary position, reduce school nurse services from 100 per cent to 20 per cent which means five-day service to one-day service, reduce psychological and social worker service from two days to one day, eliminate two cafeteria and noon supervisors positions, eliminate three head teachers positions, and reduce supplies and textbooks by a capital outlay of $30,000.

The administrative office would be moved from its downtown office to Northbrook School. This would mean a saving of $36,000 in building operations and maintenance. For the Compton Grade School this would mean the busing of 120 students from the Compton and West Brooklyn area to Mendota. Eliminate two teachers in grades fifth and sixth. A special education and special aide teacher. One janitor, and one lunchroom and noon supervisor.

In the last referendum in June, the precinct four Compton area residents were the only ones to approve the tax rate increase. Compton's vote was 124 yes, 48 no. At that time 1,036 voters cast no and 539 were in favor of the proposal.

Earlier this year the Compton Grade School was threatened with closing, but with a lot of determination and effort by the Compton people, they were able to convince the grade school board to remain open for the 1975-76 school year.

In June the grade school board drew up proposals on cuts in the educational budget. One was the elimination of the Compton Grade School. The Compton citizens did not sit back and let this happen. They organized meetings to find some alternative to their problem and established a committee to investigate the legal matters plus hire an attorney.

They attended the grade school meetings the board had set up informing the public of the financial problems they faced. These four meetings at each school in the district were well attended by the Compton residents but poorly by the Mendota area—that in fact if it had not been for the Compton people there wouldn't have been enough attendance to conduct a meeting.

On their June 17 board meeting, the appointed committee approached the board and informed them of the proposed alternatives, a petition, and a financial statement. Village board president of West Brooklyn, John Gehant, had prepared and presented the board with the Lee County tax amounts that have been paid in the past four years to the district and the Mendota High School district.

Taxes payable in 1975 to district 289 will amount to $163,974.21. The tax revenue from Lee County is more than supporting the school and students and they stated another one of their alternatives is to drop from the district and either go on their own or join Lee County. This idea is still in effect if the school is closed if a release can be obtained from the district.

On the following board meeting on July 8 the school board finance committee recommended that Compton school not be closed for the 1975-76 school year.

Council meeting

The board of directors of the Tri-County Opportunities Council will meet Wednesday in the Personnel Building (basement) at the Dixon Developmental Center at 7:30 p.m.

The meeting is an open session to the public.

Breath tests may be used to detect some diseases

ARGONNE, Ill. (AP) — Breath tests for a number of diseases may soon be available from research in nuclear medicine, a biologist reports.

These tests, involving what are called stable isotopes, would be easier to administer and safer than radioactive tests now given for some diseases, he said.

The biologist, Dr. Peter D. Klein of Argonne National Laboratory, said in an interview that the tests already have been devised and used at a number of leading medical centers around the country.

What remains is their refinement and development of economical means of analyzing them so they might become practical for wider use, Klein said.

Klein directs the Argonne stable isotope research program and coordinates the research of the medical centers.

Stable isotopes have an additional advantage over radioactive isotopes in that they are good indefinitely, he said. Radioactive isotopes decay quickly—in a matter of hours.

There also is no hazard in the manufacture, transportation or storage of stable isotopes, Klein added.

While radioactive isotopes are not used, except in the rarest of circumstances, for diagnostic work in infants, young children or pregnant women, the biologist said, stable isotopes are safe for such patients.

They also will make possible mass screening, for which radioactive isotopes are unsuitable, he said.

A stable isotope is a naturally occurring variant of an element—such as carbon, nitrogen or hydrogen—which has one or more extra neutrons in its nucleus. It has the same chemical and physical properties as the major element but differs slightly in the rate at which it undergoes chemical reactions.

For use in breath tests, the principle is this:

The patient swallows material containing a small amount of the isotope, such as carbon 13. Then the breath is tested for presence of the isotope in the exhaled carbon dioxide. The amount indicates how well or poorly the body's metabolism is functioning.

Among disorders for which breath tests have been developed are: lactose, or milk, intolerance; malabsorption of fatty and bile acids, and cystic fibrosis.

In the case of milk intolerance, for example, the patient consumes lactose, or milk sugar, labeled with carbon 13. If significant amounts of carbon dioxide 13 are exhaled after the substance should have been digested, the patient's upset stomach may be presumed to result from milk because the lactose is not being metabolized.

The tests also can be used to determine how effective some drugs are in the treatment of metabolic diseases.

Boy gets to keep clubhouse

BELLWOOD, Ill. (AP) — Nine-year-old Danny Nain can keep the tarpaper shack he calls clubhouse but city officials call an eyesore.

"Who said you can't fight City Hall and win?" said his mother Shirley Nain, after Judge Phillip Mahon of Circuit Court dismissed a village suit against her and her husband, Joseph. They were accused of refusing an order to tear down Danny's backyard clubhouse.

Danny and some friends collected old pieces of wood and tar paper and put up the retreat last spring.

Village officials of the suburb west of Chicago said the clubhouse was an eyesore and, besides, Danny did not get a building permit.

A building inspector threatened to fine the Nains $25 for each day the clubhouse stood there.

"The judge is a fine, understanding man," said Mrs. Nain after an hour-long court session

Friday before an overflow audience. "In his chambers the judge whispered to Danny, 'I used to have such a clubhouse myself.'"

"The judge asked Danny if any older persons ever went in the clubhouse, maybe to hide or something," Mrs. Nain continued. "Danny said, 'Yes, once there was one.' 'Go on, Danny, tell me about it. How old was he, Danny?' the judge asked. Danny said, 'Oh, middleage, I guess.' 'What do you mean by that?' asked the judge. 'Oh, 14 or 15 years old,' said Danny. Everyone broke up on that one, including the judge," said Mrs. Nain.

The Worry Clinic

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE
CASE F-625: Sally S., aged 28, has sexual charisma.

"Dr. Crane," she confessed, "when I was in college my sorority sisters and I read your 'Worry Clinic' every day in our Ohio newspaper."

"And we were unanimous in saying you were all wrong in telling your readers that women are not as erotic as men."

"But after I graduated and got married, I soon found that you had been telling the truth all those years."

"For, although I was madly in love with my husband, I didn't have half the craving for what you facetiously term 'boudoir cheesecake.'

"And I saw a recent report by Dr. Paul Cameron, of St. Mary's College in Maryland, which corroborated everything you have been writing for many years."

"Dr. Cameron surveyed 818 men and women of various age brackets regarding their primary interests in life."

"Men under the age of 26 ranked sex and music as tied for 1st."

"In the 26-39 bracket, they put sex definitely in 1st place. 'The 40-55 group placed family first; then sex."

"None of the women's groups ranked sex very high, for girls under 26 ranked it only 5th, and those in the 26-39 bracket put family, nature, travel and music ahead of sex."

"Middle-aged women listed sex as 11th."

"Dr. Crane, what you have been telling readers for the past generation is now belatedly being acclaimed by both psychological and medical research."

"For my husband is a physician and he says your stress on trace chemicals (as in ocean water) is now getting more and more support from biochemical scientists."

"And even the leading cancer research foundations are also agreeing with Dr. Andrew C. Ivy's pioneer theme that our bodies manufacture their own anti-cancer hormone when we are young, but fail to produce 100 per cent thereof by the time we reach middle age."

"So our University Women's Club would like to sponsor a

Today in History

By The Associated Press
Today is Monday, Nov. 17, the 321st day of 1975. There are 44 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1869, the Suez Canal was opened, linking the Mediterranean Sea and Red Sea.

On this date:

In 1558, Queen Mary of England died and was succeeded by Elizabeth I.

In 1604, Sir Walter Raleigh was tried for treason in England.

In 1776, British forces led by Lord Cornwallis attacked Fort Lee, N.J., during the American Revolution.

In 1880, the U.S. Congress convened for the first time in the new, unfinished Capitol Building in Washington.

In 1891, the Polish pianist, Ignace Jan Paderewski, made his American debut at New York's new Carnegie Hall.

In 1948, Britain's House of Commons voted to nationalize the nation's steel industry.

Ten years ago: The great-great-great-granddaughter of King George III, Princess Margaret, was the guest of honor at a dinner-dance at the White House.

Five years ago: An unmanned Soviet moon-rover, guided from earth, rolled along the surface of the moon.

One year ago: President Ford flew to Japan to begin an eight-day Asian tour.

Today's birthdays: Actor Rock Hudson is 50. Tom Seaver of the New York Mets baseball club is 31.

Thought for today: One song leads on to another, one friend to another friend — Wilfred Wilson Gibson, English poet, 1878-1962.

Bicentennial footnote: Two hundred years ago today, at Cambridge, Mass., a lieutenant in George Washington's army was tried by court martial for defrauding his men of their pay and was ordered cashiered from the military service.

7 out of 10 Rabbit Tests are positive.

Our research shows that 70% of all the people who buy the Rabbit say that it was the test drive that made up their minds for them. It's no wonder. The Rabbit drives like no other car you've ever driven before.

You see, in designing the Rabbit, we didn't just stop at things like front-wheel drive and rack-and-pinion steering. We created a totally unique "independent stabilizer rear axle" that greatly increases the stability of the car on rough roads. And therefore the safety.

And speaking of safety, we gave the Rabbit features that you'll find on few other cars in the world. Like "negative steering roll radius," for example, which helps bring the car to a straight stop in the event of a front-wheel blowout.

But the two big things that everyone who drives the Rabbit really marvels at are: one, the amount of head and leg room (as much as some mid-sized cars); and two, its incredible pickup. (0 to 50 in 8.2 seconds.) Which is pretty amazing for a car that rates an EPA-estimated 39 mpg on the highway—and 25 in the city, with standard transmission. (Actual mileage may vary depending on type of driving, driving habits, car's condition and optional equipment.)

But don't just take our word for it. Stop in and take a Rabbit Test today.

SAUK VALLEY—Led by consistent shooting and a stingy defense, the Sauk Valley Redmen trounced a returning Alumni squad 110-75, here, Saturday evening.

Redmen sophomore returning letterman Tim Granzow was high scorer in the contest, collecting 22 points. The 6'10" center played a fine defensive game underneath forcing the Alumni to shoot from outside. Granzow intimidated the Alumni layup seekers with three blocked shots.

The Alumni controlled the opening jump and took the initial lead on a layup by Tom Zinanni, a Redman on the 1974-75 squad. Granzow got the bucket right back on a 10-foot turn-around jumper inside the lane.

The score during the opening minutes of the traditional battle seesawed as each team came right down court to swish one through the nets. Granzow picked up six of the Redmen's first eight points with assists from guard Randy Paisley.

Joe Salvatori and Gary Helms, who played during the 1973-75 seasons, kept the Alumni in the game with their hot shooting in the early portion of the first half. Salvatori pumped in six points, a reverse layup, a hook and a 15-foot jumper to offset Granzow and Mike Friedlein's short layups.

Helms swished three long buckets with Greg Schott getting assists. Helms and Schott seemed back in the groove after playing four years together, two at Sterling High School and two at SVC.

With a little over 15 minutes remaining in the half, Sauk pulled ahead when it banged off eight consecutive points. Freshman starter Keith Luther and letterman Steve Hook each netted a pair of baskets, to give the Redmen a never-to-lose 22-14 advantage.

Alumni assistant coach, Randy Ullrich, program director at the Dixon YMCA, tried to spark his team on as he connected for four points on a 15-foot jump and a layup. But the Redmen had taken charge and were not to be denied.

The fast Redmen took advantage of the patternless Alumni as Friedlein and Granzow were left alone down court for numerous easy layups.

Mark Marinangeli and Stan Gaffey spelled Paisley and Hook midway through the first half and showed what kind of material SVC coach, Frank Palumbo, has on his bench.

The duo of guards increased Sauk's lead to 19 points late in the half. Gaffey hit for six points and Marinangeli scored four baskets in displaying an accurate outside shot. Luther picked up four points at the end of the half to give the Redmen a 61-36 margin.

Gordon Fortney collected seven points while Salvatori, Zinanni and Helms pushed in a bucket apiece to aid the faltering Alumni.

The second half of action was all Redmen as the Alumni started to force shots in an attempt to get back into the lopsided game. The Alumni raced down court and shot quick with no effort in setting up an offense.

And Sauk controlled the boards all night. The Redmen, who naturally play a more patterned type of basketball, set up their shots and scored with an alarming accuracy.

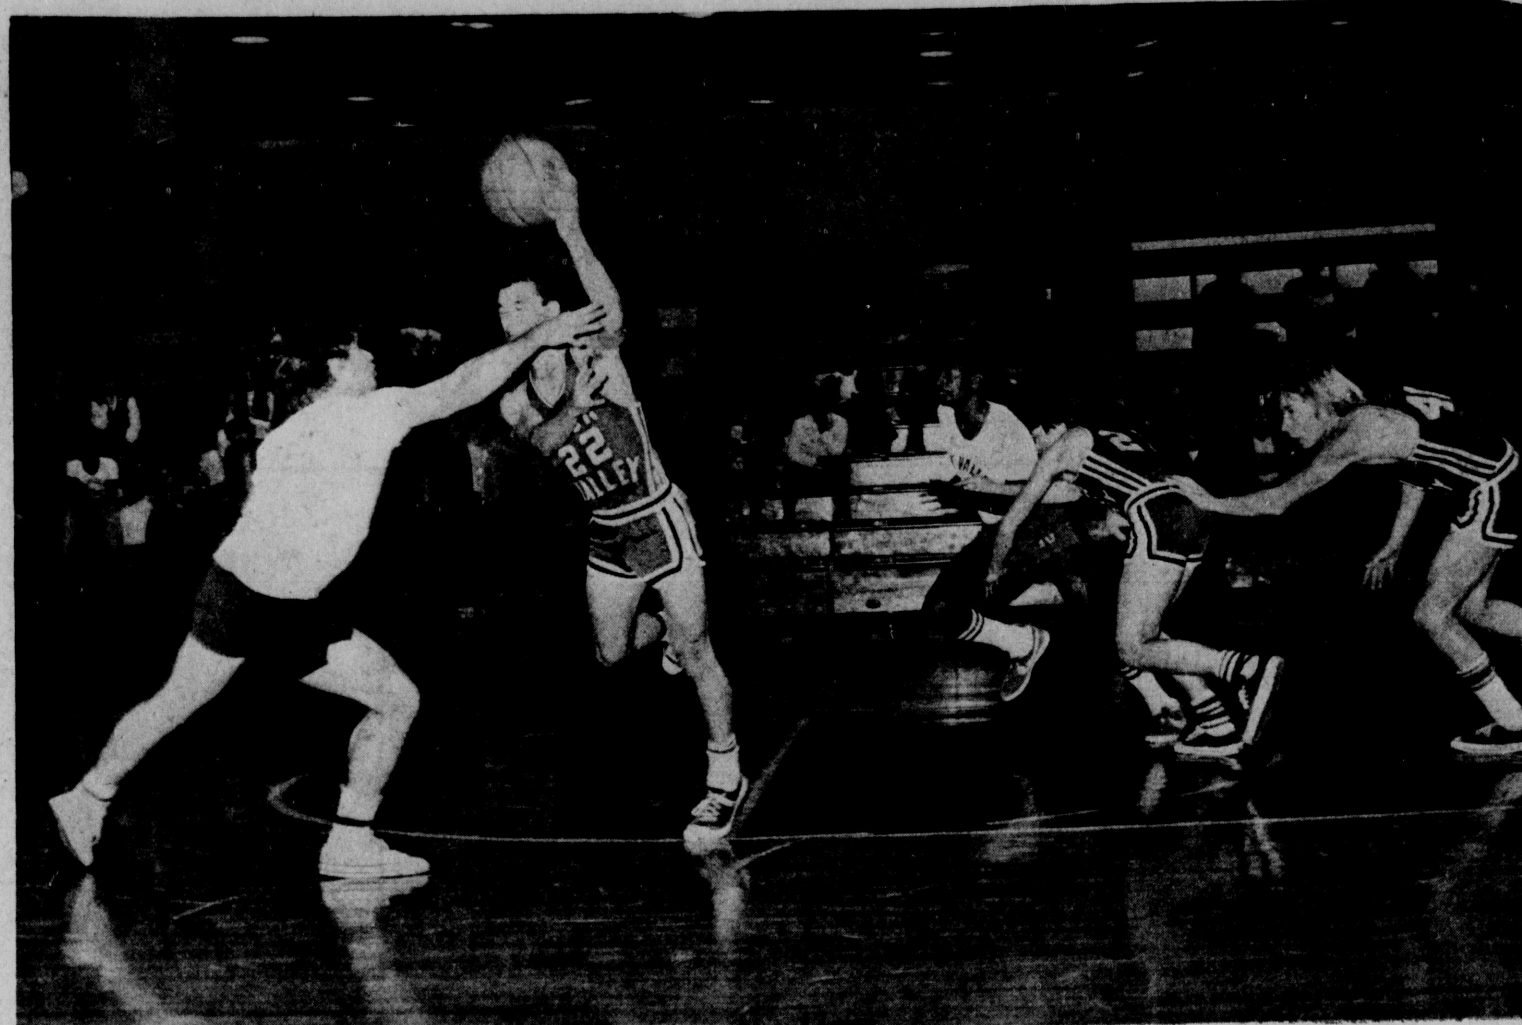

Granzow, who had 14 points in the opening 20 minutes, pumped in eight more in the second half. Paisley got hot and sank four buckets in the latter half as the Redmen pulled away easily.

Ed Fritts swished a pair of 15-footers, Ullrich connected for six points, Salvatori continue his hot shooting with 11 second-half points and Bob Megli put four baskets through as the Alumni gallantly pursued the Redmen but fell way short 110-75.

"We played well as a unit tonight," commented Coach Palumbo after the fun contest. "We showed our depth to some degree. The whole team worked well together. I hope we can continue to play like this all season."

Behind Granzow's 22 points were Luther with 18 and Hook with 14. Salvatori led the Alumni with 17, followed by Helms' 14 and Ullrich's 11.

The Redmen open their regular season with a non-conference contest versus Spoon River at Canton Saturday night at 7:30. The Alumni now silently go their ways to plan their strategy for next year's battle.

Cardinals upend Redskins Vikings remain unbeaten

By HAL BOCK
AP Sports Writer

Any football coach worth his whistle knows that the only place the game pays off is in the won-loss column. So what if it wasn't neat? It's whether you win or lose, not how you play the game that counts.

That's why Minnesota didn't worry about six fumbles, two interceptions and 50 yards in penalties. What counts is that the Vikings beat New Orleans 20-7 Sunday, extending their National Football League winning streak to nine consecutive games.

And St. Louis doesn't care that its tying touchdown with 20 seconds left against Washington needed a huddle by the officials before it was approved. Seven points is seven points, and that TD forced the overtime that saw the Cardinals kavo the Redskins 20-17 on Jim Bakken's 37-yard field goal. The game's nine turnovers? So what?

Neatness counts in the fourth grade but in the NFL, all that matters is putting more points on the scoreboard than the other guys.

Baltimore, for example, neatly demolished the New York Jets 52-19 for Sunday's one-sided award but Houston got the same effect, nipping Miami 20-19 on a touchdown by Ronnie Coleman with 71 seconds left.

Vikings 20, Saints 7

"We made an awful lot of mistakes," noticed Minnesota Coach Bud Grant. "I don't know why, I don't think it was the caliber of the opposition."

The 2-7 Saints didn't turn the ball over once but couldn't take advantage of Minnesota's sloppy play.

Despite his two interceptions,

Fran Tarkenton pitched three touchdowns passes to keep the Vikings' winning streak going.

Cardinals 20, Redskins 17

Jim Hart's second TD pass of the game to Mel Gray with 20 seconds left tied the game and then Bakken's sure foot won it after seven minutes of overtime for St. Louis. The victory moved the Cards into first place in the NFC East, one game ahead of Washington and Dallas.

Gray caught the tying TD at the goal line and then was stripped of the ball by cornerback Pat Fischer. At first, the play was ruled incomplete but after a lengthy huddle, the officials reversed themselves and allowed the touchdown.

Colts 52, Jets 19

Bert Jones hurled three touchdown passes including a club record 90-yarder to Roger Carr, leading Baltimore to its romp over New York. Jones passed for 277 yards before leaving the game with a rib injury.

Oilers 20, Dolphins 19

Coleman broke five tackles and went seven yards for Houston's winning TD against Miami.

Bubba Smith blocked two extra point attempts by the Dolphins' Garo Yepremian, setting the stage for Coleman's winning score.

Steelers 28, Chiefs 3

Pittsburgh won its seventh straight game and took the AFC Central lead for the first time this season by one-half game over Cincinnati, which plays tonight.

Quarterback Terry Bradshaw's 42-yard TD pitch to Lynn Bradshaw gave the Steelers their first points of the game only seven seconds before halftime.

Cowboys 34, Patriots 31

Roger Staubach threw three TD passes but Dallas barely hung on to beat New England. The victory tied the Cowboys with Washington, one game back of St. Louis in the NFC East.

Rams 16, Falcons 7

James Harris passed for 242 yards, 151 to Ron Jessie, as Los Angeles defeated Atlanta. Jessie accounted for the game's only TD on a nine-yard pass from Harris after Tom Dempsey had kicked three field goals for LA.

But the Rams, three games in front in the NFC West, needed two dropped passes in the end zone by the Falcons' Haskel Stanback and Alfred Jenkins to win.

Raiders 38, Browns 17

Ken Stabler hurled four touchdown passes, leading Oakland past winless Cleveland.

The Browns, who dropped their ninth straight, were tied 17-17 with the AFC West Division leading Raiders until late in the third quarter. Then Stabler eased Oakland to his victory.

Eagles 13, Giants 10

Beaten three times on field goals in the final seconds, Philadelphia turned the tables, knocking off the Giants on a 30-yarder by Horst Muhlmann with 28 seconds left to play.

The victory halted a five-game Eagle losing streak.

49ers 31, Bears 3

Del Williams ran for 106 yards and Steve Spurrier passed for 124 more as San Francisco whipped Chicago.

Williams became the first 49er back this season to gain more than 100 yards rushing and it marked the first time San Francisco has won two games in a row this year.

Lions 13, Packers 10

Errol Mann kicked a 23-yard field goal with 13 seconds left, giving Detroit its victory over Green Bay. Joe Reed's 48-yard pass to Ray Jarvis with 54 seconds left set up the winner.

Broncos 27, Chargers 17

Steve Ramsey passed for a pair of touchdowns as Denver extended winless San Diego's losing streak to nine games.

The Chargers came from behind, wiping out a 17-3 Bronco lead to tie the score. But then Denver staged a goaline stand, stopping San Diego one yard short of the TD that would have put the Chargers in front.

The Broncos won the game with 10 points in the final period.

Running was key factor in playoffs

By The Associated Press

The teams that ran the best scored the most in the semi-final round of the Illinois High School Association state football playoffs.

Decatur St. Teresa Saturday won its 46th straight game, a 45-0 Class 2A romp over Danville Schlarman. The outcome of that game was no surprise, but there was one big upset in the semifinals, as Willowbrook was downed by Rockford Boylan in 5A.

State championship games in five classes will be held Friday and Saturday at Illinois State University, Normal. This is the second year for the Illinois High School Association playoffs.

Danville made victory easier for St. Teresa Saturday by fumbling four times. Two were scooped up by alert St. Teresa defenders and returned for touchdowns.

St. Teresa's offense also was in high gear, with running back Jerry Jones picking up 109 yards and three touchdowns.

In the finals, St. Teresa will square off against Stockton, which edged Eureka 8-7. The margin of victory was a two-point conversion.

Rockford Boylan shocked Willowbrook 21-13. Willowbrook had been considered the state powerhouse by most pollsters, but couldn't get its offense on track. Boylan took a 14-13 lead on a 78-yard scoring bomb from Mike Laggolia to Tom Gehant and never trailed.

In the final round Boylan meets Deerfield, which breezed by Loyola 35-13. Quarterback Mark Carlson engineered the victory by completing of 12 passes for 96 yards and two scores. He also ran for two more.

Joliet Catholic and Springfield Griffin will duel for the Class 4A title. Neither team had problems with semifinal opponents. Joliet cruised past Naperville Central 20-8 with an offense that gained 298 yards on the ground and 73 in the air. The defense allowed only 22 yards rushing and 17 passing. Joliet's Dave Benigni rushed for 126 yards in the game.

Griffin shut out LaSalle-Peru 12-0 with a strong defense of its own, yielding only 76 yards rushing and 31 passing. It was the 11th time in the past 12 games Griffin has held its opponent to less than 100 yards on the ground.

In a tight Class 3A contest, Metamora shaded East St. Louis Lincoln 14-12. Tied 6-6 at the half, the teams battled through a scoreless third quarter. But midway through the final period Metamora fullback Larry Sommer, who gained a total of 146 yards on 36 carries, plunged over from one-yard out.

A successful two-point conversion gave Metamora a 14-6 lead. Lincoln fought back, and quarterback Amos Young hit Johnny Poe on a 41-yard scoring strike. But Lincoln's two-point conversion attempt failed, giving Metamora a berth in the finals against Geneva, which shut out Geneseo 12-0 in Saturday's other 3A semifinal match-up.

Tim Sandman scored both touchdowns for Geneva on runs of one and two yards.

The Class 1A finals will match Concord Triopia against Princeville. Both teams won convincingly in the semifinals. Princeville upended Mackinaw 26-3 and Concord Triopia defeated Carterville 28-6.

Princeville quarterback Rod Butler completed 11 of 17 passes for 144 yards and one touchdown, a 15-yard strike to Jeff King in the third quarter.

Tide chooses Sugar

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
AP Sports Writer

As usual, Alabama is in the forefront of the postseason bowl spotlight. And as a result of the Crimson Tide's decision to play in the Sugar Bowl against Penn State, either Nebraska or Oklahoma will be shut out of the five major bowls.

The surprising beneficiary of all the weekend's wheeling and dealing, which saw 20 of the 22 major berths unexpectedly filled, could be the newest of them all, the five-year-old Fiesta Bowl, which might have a Top Ten match-up of unbeaten and eighth-ranked Arizona State — provided the Sun Devils defeat Arizona for the Western Athletic Conference title — against the loser of Saturday's Big Eight Conference showdown between second-ranked Nebraska and No. 6 Oklahoma.

The Alabama-Penn State Sugar Bowl pairing was reported by The Associated Press Sunday night and was to be officially announced in New Orleans at 1 p.m., EST, today.

With one game left for both teams, fifth-ranked Alabama has a 9-1 record following a 27-6 triumph over Southern Mississippi, to 8-2 for 11th-ranked Penn State, idle over the weekend.

The only vacant bowl berths are one in the Tangerine Bowl against 16th-ranked Miami of Ohio and another in the Peach Bowl against North Carolina State. With some pairings still to be announced officially, The AP has come up with the following bowl line-up:

—Rose Bowl: Big Ten champion (Ohio State or Michigan) vs. Pacific-8 champion (UCLA, California or Stanford).

—Orange Bowl: Nebraska-Oklahoma winner vs. Ohio

State-Michigan loser.

—Sugar Bowl: Alabama vs. Penn State.

—Cotton Bowl: Southwest Conference champion (Texas A&M, Texas or Arkansas) vs. Georgia.

—Gator Bowl: Florida vs. Maryland.

—Liberty Bowl: Southern California vs. Arkansas, if the Razorbacks don't win the Southwest Conference title and thereby go to the Cotton Bowl, or Texas A&M.

—Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl: Colorado vs. Texas A&M or Texas.

—Fiesta Bowl: Western Athletic Conference champion (Arizona State or Arizona) vs. Nebraska-Oklahoma loser.

—Sun Bowl: Pitt vs. Kansas-Missouri winner.

—Tangerine Bowl: Miami of Ohio vs. opponent to be selected.

—Peach Bowl: North Carolina State vs. opponent to be selected.

The rash of bowl invitations and the cries from the powerful Big Eight Conference that Alabama is ducking a match with a Big Eight opponent overshadowed a weekend in which nine of the Top Ten teams posted victories while the other, ninth-ranked Notre Dame, dropped out of the bowl picture by losing to Pitt 34-20 as Tony Dorsett romped for 303 yards

Oranges or roses?

By JOE MOOSHIL
AP Sports Writer

Ohio State or Michigan? Rose Bowl or Orange Bowl? That's what it's all about this week in the annual Big Ten title showdown between top-ranked Ohio State and No. 4 Michigan.

Unlike the last three years where Michigan tied Ohio State for the Big Ten title but had to sit home while the Buckeyes, for one reason or another, were selected to represent the conference in the Rose Bowl, neither team will stay home. The loser of Saturday's game will go to the Orange Bowl.

Michigan, which has two ties in its over-all record, must win to get the roses. If the two teams tie, Ohio State will get the Rose Bowl bid because of a better overall record.

Ohio State, the nation's No. 1 team, kept its slate clean with a 38-6 victory over Minnesota. Michigan defeated Illinois 21-15 to keep pace. Michigan State swamped Northwestern 47-14, Purdue edged Iowa 19-18 and Indiana and Wisconsin played to a 9-9 tie.

While Ohio State and Michigan battle for the top prize at Ann Arbor Saturday, other Big Ten teams will close the regular season with Illinois at Northwestern, Michigan State at Iowa, Purdue at Indiana and Wisconsin at Minnesota.

Ohio State or Michigan? A couple of Big Ten coaches who have recently played both teams are leaning, ever so slightly, towards Ohio State.

"It'll be a heckuva game," said Illinois' Bob Blackman who was burned by Ohio State 40-3 a week earlier than the six point loss to Michigan. "Comparative scores meaning nothing because of injuries. If both of them played 10 times, I would say Ohio State would win five, Michigan four and the last one would be a toss up."

Minnesota's Cal Stoll said, "Quarterback could be the difference. Corny (Ohio State's Cornelius Greene) is just super. The first thing you have to do is stop the buffalo (fullback Pete Johnson). If you do that, Greene can kill you. Ohio State just has so many ways to beat you."

Michigan, as expected, played exceptionally conservative football against Illinois. The Wolverines were leading 21-0 going into the fourth quarter and, as tailback Gordon Bell, who scored two touchdowns in the first quarter, put it, "After we got the jump, we let down a little."

Coach Bo Schembechler, angered by Michigan's four fumble losses but relieved by the victory, said "There's a lot of our offense Ohio State hasn't seen."

Michigan quarterback Rick Leach threw two passes, one a completion for 27 yards and the other resulting in a pass interference call which set up Michigan's third touchdown on the Illini one-yard line.

Illinois scored both of its touchdowns in the fourth quarter and both followed Michigan fumbles. After Illinois made it 21-15 with 1:14 to play, Michigan never gave up the ball.

Ohio State used its patented formula for victory. Archie Griffin carried 23 times for 124 yards including a 19-yard touchdown run, stretching his regular season record of 100-plus yards to a 31st straight game. Pete Johnson scored his 22nd touchdown of the season, a Big Ten record and Corny Greene scored twice on runs of 14 and 31 yards and passed for 131 yards.

Minnesota's Tony Dunny, the Big Ten's leading passer, didn't complete a pass until the third quarter and was intercepted three times by the Buckeye defense.

The rest of the Big Ten? Wisconsin took over sole possession of third place with its tie against Indiana. The Badgers are 3-3-1, a step ahead of Illinois, Iowa, Purdue and Michigan State who are locked in fourth place with 3-4 records.

Wisconsin's defense, led by end Pat Collins and cornerback Ken Sammons, turned back three final-quarter Indiana drives to preserve the deadlock. Indiana's Frank Stavoff barely missed a 52-yard field goal attempt with 13 seconds to play.

Scott Dierking scored three touchdowns, the last one with five seconds to play, to give Purdue a hard-earned victory over Iowa. Iowa had taken an 18-7 lead before quarterbacks Mark Vitali and C aig Nagel put on an aerial attack late in the game.

Charlie Baggett cut loose in the second half to guide Michigan State's Spartans, who trailed 14-6 at the half, to their one-sided victory. Baggett hurled two touchdown passes and engineered two more scoring drives to plunge Northwestern to a fifth straight loss.
